

The Passover
Story
Shemoth/Exodus Ch. 1

Name: _____

“It is the Passover of Yahuwah”
-Shemoth 12:11

1. What are the names of the children of Yisra’el (Israel) who came to Mitsrayim with Ya’aqob (Jacob)?
2. How many beings were with the descendants of Ya’aqob (Jacob)?
3. After the children of Yisra’el (Israel) bore fruit and increased very much and multiplied and filled the land very much, Mitsrayim (Egypt) had a new Pharaoh. Since he did not know Yosëph (Joseph), what did he say to his people?
4. What did the Mitsrites (Egyptians) do after the new Pharaoh said this?
5. After the Mitsrites (Egyptians) did this to the children of Yisra’el (Israel), they increased and grew more. The Mitsrites (Egyptians) made the children of Yisra’el (Israel) serve with harshness, and they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, and in all kinds of work in the field, all that the Mitsrites made them do was with harshness. Still, the children of Yisra’el (Israel) increased and grew even more than before. What then did Pharaoh do?
6. What did the midwives do?
7. Pharaoh was very angry, after he asked the midwives why they have kept the male children alive, the midwives told him that the Hebrew women were not like the Mistrite (Egyptian) women; they would give birth before the midwives got there. What happened to the midwives?
8. Then what did Pharaoh do?
